Desert Southwest United Methodist Foundation Scholarship Program for Students

This scholarship program recognizes students who have demonstrated exceptional leadership potential, are active within their local United Methodist Church, and who are pursuing a higher education. The scholarships assist students with the common financial challenge that they face while attending school. Multiple scholarships up to $5,000 for full-time students and up to $2,500 for part-time students may be awarded.

Qualified applicants must submit an application, a response to essay questions, an official transcript, a letter of recommendation from their clergy person, and two (2) additional letters of recommendation prior to the June 30th or December 31st deadlines.

All scholars and applicants shall be notified of the award decision within 60 days of the application deadline. Scholarship funds shall be paid directly to their school, for the benefit of the scholars. The scholarship amounts may vary annually relative to the funds available.

Letters of Recommendation: (To be provided directly from the recommender)

Provide a letter of recommendation from your church's clergy person. This letter should specifically address their perception of 1) your gifts and skills, your involvement in, and contributions to the church, and 3) your capacity to learn and grow and become a leader in your chosen field.

In addition, provide two (2) letters of recommendation – not from a family member. These letters should specifically address their perception of 1) your gifts and skills, and 2) your capacity to learn and grow and become a leader in your chosen field.

Note: The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) prohibits an educational institution from releasing confidential, non-directory information about a student without a student's consent. You may waive this right for faculty and staff when you ask them to write a letter of recommendation for this scholarship application process. It is your responsibility to provide this consent and to follow the appropriate protocol of your school.

Reminder: In order for your application to be considered, the following must be received by December 31 or June 30. It is your responsibility to verify all information has been received in our office by the due date.
