DEFERRED GIFTS
Maintain control of your assets during your lifetime	Bequest in a Will	Tithe part of your estate to the United Methodist Church as your legacy and reminder to your loved ones of your faith. A bequest amount or asset may be a specific amount or a percentage of your estate. A residual bequest assigns the remainder of the estate after all other distributions are made.	Your United Methodist Church/ Charity receives your gift when the estate is settled, and your estate may receive a tax deduction.
Avoid Probate and maintain control of and access to assets in the trust.	Living Trust	The donor will place the assets into a trust while retaining control during lifetime. Upon death, DSUMF will become the trustee and make distributions as directed by the donor.	Flexibility, privacy, lifetime control of the trust and possible estate tax savings.
Make a cost-effective major gift	New Life Insurance policy	Give a new life insurance policy naming the Church as both owner and beneficiary.	Qualifies for immediate income tax deduction. If multiple-premiums, each premium gift is income tax deductible.
Supplement income with fixed annual payments after a specific period of time.	Flexible Charitable Gift Annuity	Enter into a contract with DSUMF. DSUMF pays you or your designated annuitant a fixed payment for life after a specific period of time and will distribute 92% of the residuum to the United Methodist beneficiary you named.	Qualifies for immediate income tax deduction. If funded with appreciated stock, avoids capital gains tax. Depending upon annuitant, a portion of the income may be tax-free through life expectancy. A future gift to the United Methodist Church/Ministry.
